

The Central Record.

TENTH YEAR.

Entered at the Post Office in Lancaster, Ky., as Second Class Matter.

NUMBER 44

LOUIS LANDRAM, Publisher.

LANCASTER, KY., THURSDAY AFTENNOON, FEBRUARY 1, 1900.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

We are now Receiving our New EMBROIDERIES.

The counter where these exquisite embroideries are shown should prove an attractive one to the women who like dainty trimmings and moderate prices. When these beautiful goods are seen the impossibility of finding any more artistic or of better quality will be apparent. All of the designs are NEW this season and all are very pretty. Each has its own charm, and whatever the price, great value.

We are also receiving our spring line of CARPETS, MATTINGS, and RUGS.

The patterns are exquisite and prices reasonable.

We are showing some handsome styles in Spring Percales and Gingham.

We have some very desirable patterns in dark shade percales, we are selling at 5, 7 1/2 and 8 1/2c.

Ladies and Misses Jackets, Blankets and Comforts at much less than value, and many other lines we are selling at great bargains.

Our Customers EXPECT

better values here than anywhere else and know they are never likely to be disappointed. We have educated them up to this point and are proud to say they have proven themselves WIDE AWAKE pupils. Never seeking large profits and being always cash buyers we continually increase our clientele by constant bargain giving and price cutting. You don't have to be a good judge of merchandise to get big values here, nor do you have to come or send at any particular time. We believe we make just as much money as other houses by this policy, for while our prices are smaller our sales are unquestionably much larger than any other concern in this section. In other words we look to volume of sales for our profits which accounts for our dwarfed quotations. Our customers appreciate this and you will, too, if you try us.

LOGAN DRYGOODS COMPANY

LANCASTER AND VICINITY.

Latest From Frankfort.

A message received from Frankfort just as we go to press, (9:30 a. m.) says Senator Goebel is still alive with bright prospects of recovery. The troops have full possession of the state offices and no one without a pass is permitted to enter. The legislature met in the Capital Hotel last night and declared Goebel governor. He was at once sworn in, sat up in bed and wrote an order appointing Jno. B. Castleman adjutant general.

Wanted—Dressed fowls. T. Curry. Bring your eggs to Northcott and get 15c per dozen.

Do not miss the big bargains at the Blue Grass Grocery this week.

Handsome line of new wall paper just received by J. A. Beazley & Co.

18 pounds best Granulated Sugar for $1.00 this week at Blue Grass Grocery Company.

Don't fail to hear the popular drama, "Uncle Josh", February 8th, at the Opera House.

I will be better prepared to do all kinds carriage repairing this spring than ever. Good honest work at low prices. W. J. Romans.

Our Spring Goods are now arriving, and you can get the pick of the hand-somest lines ever brought to Lancaster by calling at once. J. Joseph.

Services Sunday. Rev. Massee tells us he will fill his regular appointments at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening at the usual hours.

Stop and Think. It is to your interest to have your Buggy, Surrey, Phaeton, Wagon and Farm Implements repaired in first class order. Costs no more than shoddy work. Call early to avoid the rush. J. B. Conn.

Very Cold Weather. A cold wave swept down upon us Saturday, and the mercury has been as low as two degrees below zero at times during the week. The coal dealers have had a supply of fuel and no suffering has been experienced. A few have applied for charity, but not so many as last winter.

Ware Successful. Master Ware McRoberts was quite successful in the poultry show at Louisville. He took third prize on his white Pekin drake, the fowl scoring 97 1/2 points. In the show of ducks, of the same variety, he took third prize, scoring 95 points. R. L. Elkin, of this city, got the next prize, and Ware is jubilant over defeating Bob. He now has a number of Cornish Indian Game chickens, which have been much admired.

Henderson. James D. Henderson died at his home, near Lowell, last Saturday morning, after a brief illness of heart trouble. The deceased was one of Garrard county's most prominent and highly respected citizens, and a man for whom all had great respect. He leaves a widow and five children, the latter all grown.

Doctors Whereas and Resolve. The local doctors met Tuesday and prepared a petition to Mr. Ray, Garrard's representative, asking him to vote against the bill now pending which licenses the osteopaths, a practice which they pronounce as of the quack variety. They also went into an agreement to, if possible, prevent their lives from being annoyed out of them by the fellows wanting whisky prescriptions. Their society is to have a number of books printed especially for this use, and each doctor is to pay to the treasurer of the society so much money per book. This will require them to charge twenty-five cents for each prescription given, as no one will want to give away the blanks for which he has paid out his hard cash.

Warriors, Bold. The Lancaster Tribe of Improved Order of Red Men met Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows Hall and proceeded to organize and install the officers. The tribe will number about forty when all signers are in, and bids fair to be one of the leading orders of the town. The work is exceedingly fine, and differs materially from the usual run of things. Col. Van Zandt, the state organizer, was present and conducted the ceremonies. The local lodge was worked up by Mr. Wilkinson, of Stanford. He is an unusually bright and sociable young gentleman, and the kind of fellow everybody likes as soon as meeting him. He asks THE RECORD to thank the people for their kindness to him while in Lancaster, and says he will always have a warm spot in his heart for them. The boys will swear by Ed, and if he don't see what he wants over here, all he has to do is to ask for it, and it will be forthcoming. We regret that lack of space prevents a more lengthy notice of the organization.

The City Council meets Monday night.

W. J. Romans has baled hay for sale at 50c per bale.

Fresh Crackers 5c pound at Blue Grass Grocery this week.

The Proctor Knott cigar leads 'em all in easy drawing and fragrant smoke

The Knights of Pythias will have work in the second degree tomorrow night.

I am agent for the Hayworth check-row Corn planter for Garrard county. M. F. ROUR, Marksburg, Ky.

Wanted, Poultry. Hens, 5c lb., ducks, 5c lb., geese 30c to 35c and turkeys 5 to 6c. H. B. NORTHCOTT.

If you are thinking of purchasing a new buggy or surrey get J. B. Conn's prices before placing your order.

Money to Loan. Any amounts from $100 to $1,000, to suit borrower. Terms easy. J. C. HEMPHILL.

We cordially invite an inspection of our lovely lines of Ribbons. They are beauties and we are proud to show them to our customers. J. Joseph.

Fresh home-made bread every day. Fresh cakes of every description. Meals served at all hours. Oysters in any style. Leave your orders for reception refreshments. R. ZIMMER.

Ready For Business. We have received our immense stock of Furniture, Carpets, Mattings, Etc., and cordially invite the public to call examine goods and prices. We can make it to your interest to deal with us. Louisville Furniture Co. Next to new Hotel, Lancaster, Ky.

A New Firm. On next Saturday, we will open a complete stock of general merchandise in our new room on Richmond street, next to Baptist church. Will carry everything kept in a first class general store and invite our friends to give us a call. C. D. POWELL & CO.

Business Change. R. P. Poynter, of Glasgow, Ky. has bought of Wm. Ward an interest in the Lancaster Flour Mills, and the firm name will be Ward & Poynter. R. G. Wardleas the Plaining Mills and will have entire control of same. THE RECORD bespeaks for these enterprising gentlemen a liberal share of patronage.

New Grocery. We have purchased the entire stock of groceries of Faulconer & Herndon, for cash, and we cheerfully solicit the patronage of the Lancaster trade. We will pay cash for every article purchased, and will discount every bill, thus saving many dollars to our customers. If you want to get good groceries at cash prices call on us. We purchased a large stock of groceries before the rise in prices and we propose to sell the best goods cheaper than any other firm in Lancaster. Give us an order and we will appreciate it and guarantee satisfaction. Respectfully, E. C. GAINES & CO.

Enjoyable Entertainment. The Kentucky Colonels gave a splendid concert at the Opera House Tuesday evening. Those present were so delighted with the music that they made a special request that they sing again last night, which was done. The extreme cold weather, together with the excitement over affairs at Frankfort, kept many from attending, and should they visit our town again, they are sure of a crowded house. Each number on the program was roundly applauded, and encores. Mr. A. D. Flora, an old Lancaster boy, was given a hearty reception, and encores time and again.

Indignation Meeting. When the news of the shooting of Goebel reached Lancaster Tuesday, it caused much excitement. It was decided to hold an indignation meeting, and at 2 o'clock the court room was well filled with representative citizens of both parties. Mr. J. A. Doty was called to the chair and J. M. Farra made secretary. A committee on resolutions was appointed and reported as given below. During the meeting, a number of speeches were made. The following resolutions show the feeling of the people over the shooting:

We, the committee appointed by the indignation meeting called by the citizens of Lancaster, Garrard county, Ky., held at the court house on Jan. 20, 1900 to prepare suitable resolutions upon the assassination of Wm. Goebel, would respectfully report the following:

That we hereby denounce in unmeasured terms the shooting of Wm. Goebel as a damnable, cowardly and foul assassination, and condemn in the strictest terms any and all persons connected with it, and to show our unreserved condemnation of said cowardly and dastardly act, we hereby sign our names to this resolution. T. B. Robinson, W. I. Williams, R. H. Tomlinson, Letcher Owsley and G. B. Swinebroad.

No smoke better than the Proctor Knott cigar.

3 pounds best Baking Soda for 5c at Blue Grass Grocery.

T. Curry will pay highest price in cash or produce for eggs.

I am standing a nice Jersey Bull at $1.00 cash. [m25t] R. L. ELKIN.

New stock of plain gold wedding rings and diamonds at J. C. Thompson's.

Bring your produce, Butter, Eggs and Poultry to the Blue Grass Grocery and get best market prices.

Have that sewing machine, gun, revolver and all kind of repairing done at J. B. Conn's new shop.

To Rent. Blacksmith shop and dwelling at Old Paint Lick. For particulars address T. R. Slavin, Manse, Ky.

Lost. Collarette, between John Anderson's and Charley Grimes', Sunday afternoon. Please return to this office.

The Paint Lick Enterprise seems to have turned its toes to the daisies, and abandoned the job of filling a long-felt want.

Our Percales are pronounced by the ladies to be the prettiest ever shown in Lancaster. We bought them right and can give you surprisingly low figures. J. Joseph.

Everyone is talking of the grand low bargains at the Blue Grass Grocery this week. Come and see how much you can get for so little money. Bring your PRODUCE along.

Passed Examination. Lewis West and Ben D. Herndon, of this city, have received reports of their examinations under the Civil Service. Both received high marks, far above the average.

Fork Church Society. The Ladies Working Society of the Fork church met with Mrs. Todd Scott Jan. 18th and elected the following new officers for the year: Mrs. Todd Scott, president, Mrs. J. A. Wood, secretary and Miss M. E. Marks-bury treasurer. This society did well, making over two hundred dollars last year.

Popular Play. The play of "Uncle Josh" is one of the brightest, most lovable and laughable comedies ever written. In three acts it depicts the adventures of unsophisticated, big-hearted "Joshua Whitcomb" in Boston and his quiet New England home. Almost every sentence contains a hearty laugh, and the others are full of pathos—a happy mingling of laughter and tears. At the Opera House Thursday, February 8th. Admission 25c, 50c and 75c reserved seats at McRoberts Store.

County Must Keep Up The Pikes. The Harrodsburg Sayings says: In the case sent up to Judge Sauley, involving the contention between the City of Harrodsburg and Mercer county as to keeping up the pikes in the city limits, his honor decided that the county must sustain the roads as the pike corporations had done until said county had paid for them and gotten a deed therefor. The county will not finish paying for the pikes for a year yet and County Judge B. F. Roach informed the reporter that the spreading of rock on those streets in town which were kept up by the original owners of the roads will begin immediately.

Talk of Another Paper. We see there is talk of starting another paper at Danville. It is about the easiest thing in the world to "start" a paper, the promoters generally being pumped full of hot air by parties who, nine times in ten, owe several years subscription to the paper already in existence. A few people can always be counted upon to get the line under their tail and kick at any paper, but these few cannot support the one they insist is necessary to be started "to fill a long-felt want." It has been estimated that one man in every ten makes a success of running a newspaper.

Last Sunday we heard a preacher trying to drum it into his congregation's heads that it did not pay to get mad and say ugly words when things did not go to suit them. We then and there resolved to try and accept his advice, but on coming to the office Monday morning, with the mercury below "0" and everything frozen as tight as a drum, the stove pipe proceeded to fall down just as we had the fire started to burning. The soot landed all over a lot of job work, in the cases, on our only shirt, and piled knee-deep upon the floor. Oh, how we longed for that pulpit pounder to be present and help enjoy the scenery. Capt. White put on his coat and went home, the foreman went in search of a blind tiger, while the devil chattered a merry "te-he" in his shirt sleeves. It may be well enough to preach on "Thou shalt not cuss," etc., but those who insist upon its being wrong never went through a stove-pipe wreck on a cold day.

I can save you money on harness. W. J. Romans.

Fine California Prunes 5c pound at Blue Grass Grocery.

Ask for the Proctor Knott cigar. It's the best smoke you can get.

S. T. Leavell now has plenty of oats, hay and corn on hand for sale for cash.

Buggy built to order. Get a hand made buggy and it will last you. J. B. Conn.

What Wanted. Highest market price paid. Address H. C. Potts, Buckeye, Ky. 3-8-00.

If you want a good home-made buggy, Surrey, Phaeton or road-wagon I have them CHEAP. W. J. Romans.

Bring your Butter and Eggs to the Blue Grass Grocery where you can always get the highest market prices for them.

Don't buy a buggy, phaeton, surrey, or road-wagon until you see my prices. The largest stock ever in Lancaster to select from, prices lower than anywhere. W. J. Romans.

Business Change. Messrs. Faulconer & Herndon have sold their stock of groceries to Ed. C. Gaines & Co., who will continue the business at the same stand.

Holton Frank Called. Holton O. Frank, of Lexington, has been called by the Christian church at Grange City, Fleming county and also at Moores, Bath county, for one half of his time during the ensuing year.

Accepts A Call. Rev. Henry Faulconer has accepted a call to a church in Hillsboro, Ohio. He left, with his wife, this week, to make his home there. The best wishes of Lancaster's people go with him. He is a young minister of extraordinary ability, and the church securing his services is to be congratulated.

Found at Harrodsburg. On the first evening of January 1900, the best Harrow on the market for $12.00. Ask O. T. Wallace, Joel Walker, George B. Robinson, J. S. Johnson, T. Y. Hudson, C. M. Jenkins, Nixon Perkins, F. B. Kemper, M. F. Rour, Garrett Wood, Clate Arnold, L. C. Elder, I. M. Dunn, James Hills, Eugene Berkele, T. E. Adams, James Spillman, William Lawson, or any other farmer what they are. At same place I have the machine to make old buggy wheels fit the spindles just as they do when new for 50 cents for each spindle. C. K. POINDEXTER.

The Garrard Open.

After many tedious delays, the Garrard Hotel has thrown open its doors to the public. THE RECORD has from time to time given descriptions of the building, and our readers are familiar with the size and arrangement thereof. As stated before, it is built in connection with the Opera House, the two covering the entire Miller lot, at corner of Public Square and Richmond street. The three stories make ample room to accommodate one hundred guests with all ease. The office is the largest ever made in a country town, it being 50 by 75 feet square. The parlor is situated on second floor, next to the dining room, the latter being 25 by 50 feet, with several large windows opening on Public Square. The kitchen is directly behind the dining room, also on second floor.

The three sample rooms are located on second and third floors, a large elevator being used to lift the drummers' trunks to them. These rooms have large windows, thus making a splendid place for the "Knights of the Grip" to display their goods. There are in all 29 bed rooms, each being furnished with new carpets, iron bedsteads with brass trimmings, oak bureaus and wash stands, a centre table and several chairs. There are water closets on each floor, each being flushed by the large compressed air tank located in the basement. Electric lights are placed in each room, and many are located along the halls. Each room has an electric call bell running to the office. The halls, parlor and most of the rooms are covered with Brussels carpets, as are also the stairways. The immense heaters, located in the basement, keep each room in the building thoroughly warm, and no matter what hour a room is wanted, it is perfectly comfortable. The heating apparatus is pronounced by people who are posted on such matters to be the best they have seen.

Manager Fissinger and wife look after the running of the house in person, and they see that each servant performs the duties required of him. Parties who have stopped at The Garrard are loud in praises of the fare, and pronounce it the best to be had at the average country hotel. Lancaster people are proud of the new building and are glad to know it is starting off under such favorable prospects.
